States that the quarters of the Lal bagh Supdt have been occupied by the family of Mr. G.H. Krumbiegel ever since he left Bangalore on 15.11.15 and enquires whether the quarters should be treated as rent free as hitherto or whether rent should be recovered from Mrs. Krumbiegel; also requests orders as to whether the interest and depreciation charges on the capital cost of the electric light installation in the bridge amounting to Rs. 42/- per annum which were being paid by Mr. Krumbiegel, may also be levied from Mrs Krumbiegel

1 In paragraph 2 of G.O. No. G.1349-21 dt 27.3.16 Mrs. Krumbiegel has been permitted to occupy the quarters in question as a special case. It might perhaps be inferred from this that no rent is leviable.

2 Mrs. Krumbiegel is however liable to pay the depreciation charges in question.

Secretary to Government of Mysore,

General Department, Bangalore.

Sir,

I have the honour to inform you that the quarters of the Lalbagh Superintendent have been under occupation by the family of Mr. C.W.Krumbiegel, ever since he left Bangalore, viz., 15th - - November 1915. A question is now raised by the Executive Engineer, Bangalore Division, as to whether the quarters should be treated as rent free as hitherto or whether rent should be recovered from Mr. Krumbiegel's family. In the latter case, the rent leviable is Rs.57/ per mensem calculated at half per cent on the capital cost (Rs.11,329) as per rules.

2. The occupants are also liable for interest and ~~xx~~ depreciation charges at 5 per cent on the capital cost of the electric light installation put up in the building. These charges which amount to about Rs.42 per annum or Rs.3-8-0 per month were being paid by Mr. Krumbiegel.

3. I request the favour of your obtaining the early orders
